AMEND Senate Bill No. 3804*

House Bill No. 3911

by deleting the following phrase from the amendatory language of Section 1:

Persons entitled to redeem property may do so by paying the moneys to the clerk as required by §67-5-2703 within one (1) year from the date the property was sold;

and by substituting instead the following:

Persons entitled to redeem property may do so by paying the moneys to the clerk as required by §67-5-2703 within one (1) year from the date the property was sold, as evidenced by the order of confirmation;

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the following sentence from the amendatory language of Section 2:

A taxpayer may redeem property that has been previously redeemed by paying to the clerk the moneys as required by §67-5-2703 within one (1) year from the date the property was sold.

and by substituting instead the following:

A taxpayer may redeem property that has been previously redeemed by paying
to the clerk the moneys as required by §67-5-2703 within one (1) year from the date the property was sold, as evidenced by the order of confirmation.
